A decorative wreath made of white roses and green vines, set against a solid purple background. The roses are stylized with multiple layers of petals, and the vines are thin and winding, with small green leaves interspersed. The wreath is circular and frames the central text.

Kardia

Kardia comes from the Greek word heart; this section is dedicated to the demonstration of animations that I have created over the years, it contains my best animated works a showcase of my passion for this complicated but beautiful branch of art.

These animations are a part of my project called “Vapormoon”, these are a series of hybrid 2D/3D animations, inspired by the Vaporwave artistic movement.

Software:

- Adobe After Effects,
- Adobe Illustrator,
- Adobe Photoshop,
- Rough Animator.

Personaje: Moon

“Do You Poison?”, is a 2D animation that uses audio from the British Comedy series “Bruiser”, the animation was made 100% from scratch and took roughly 4 months to complete.

Software:

- Rough Animator
- Autodesk Sketchbook
- Flipaclip

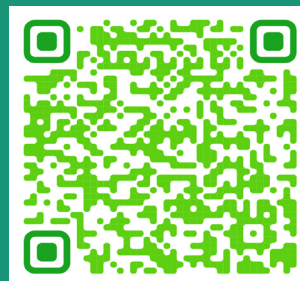

Characters: Keleam and Cylax

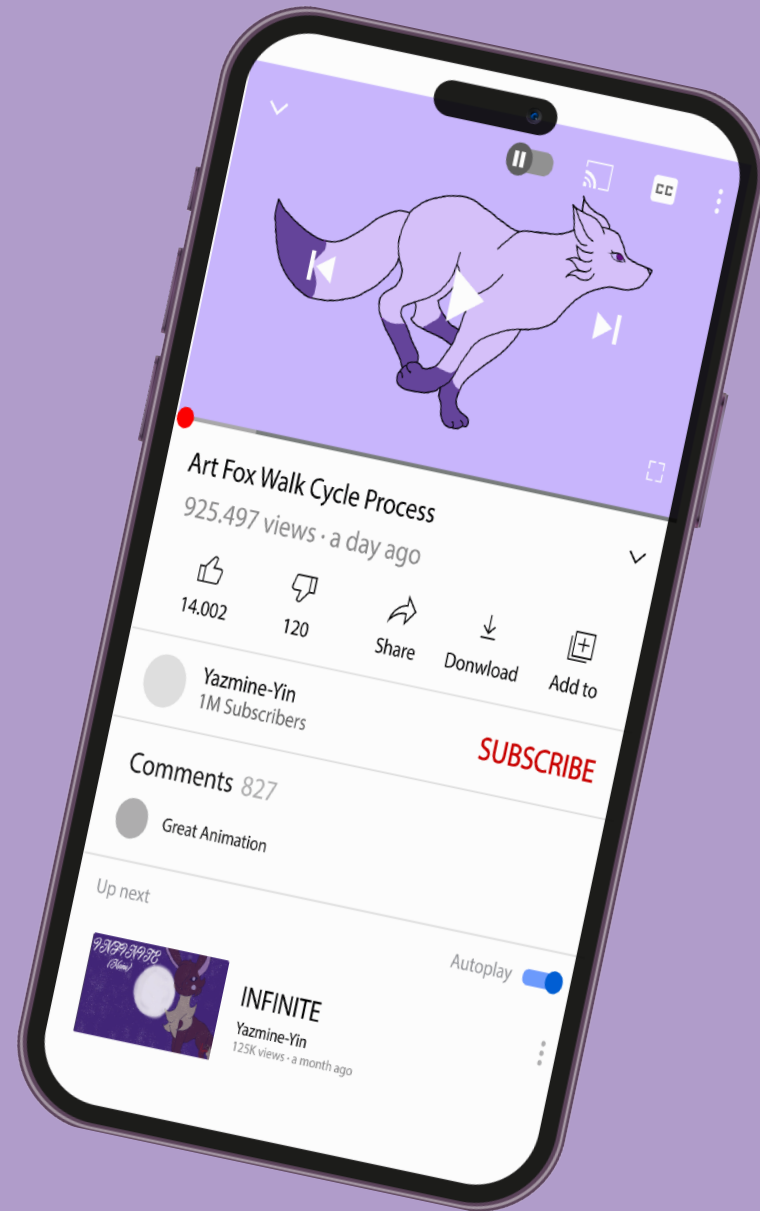

Do you
Poison?

(Bruiser Animated)

“Art Fox Walk Cycle Process” is a small animation test/example made specifically for this portfolio, it took roughly 6 hours to complete and features the character of Artfox.

Software:
Rough Animator

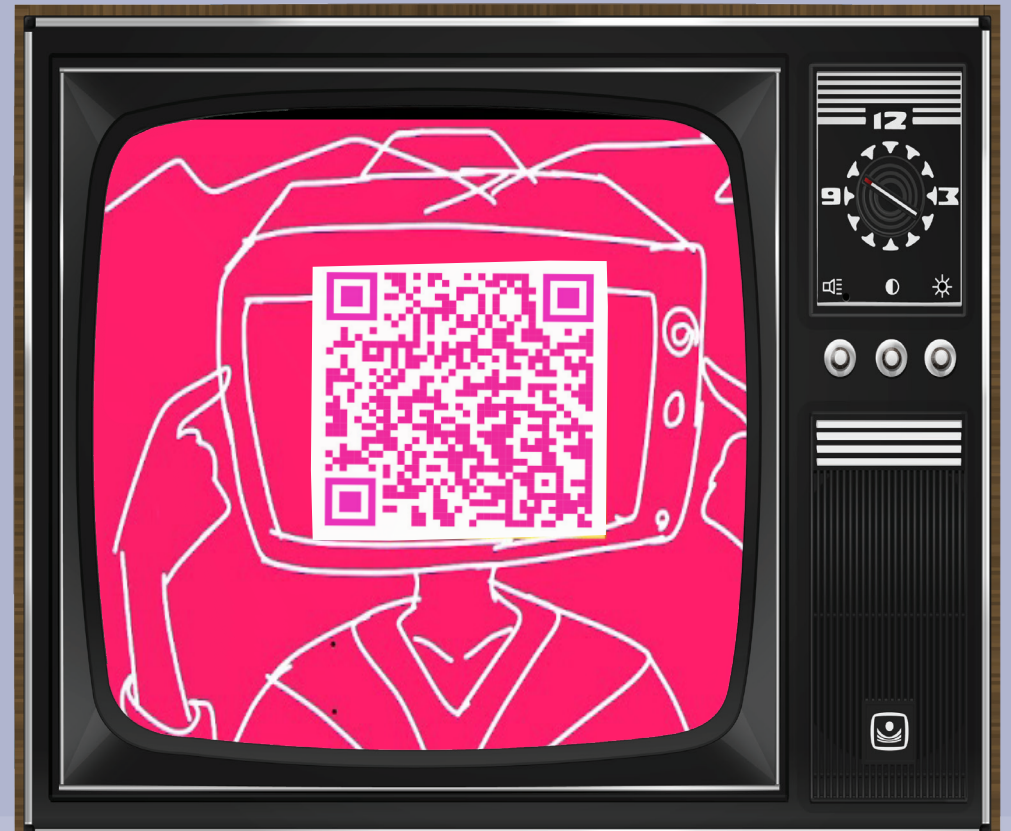

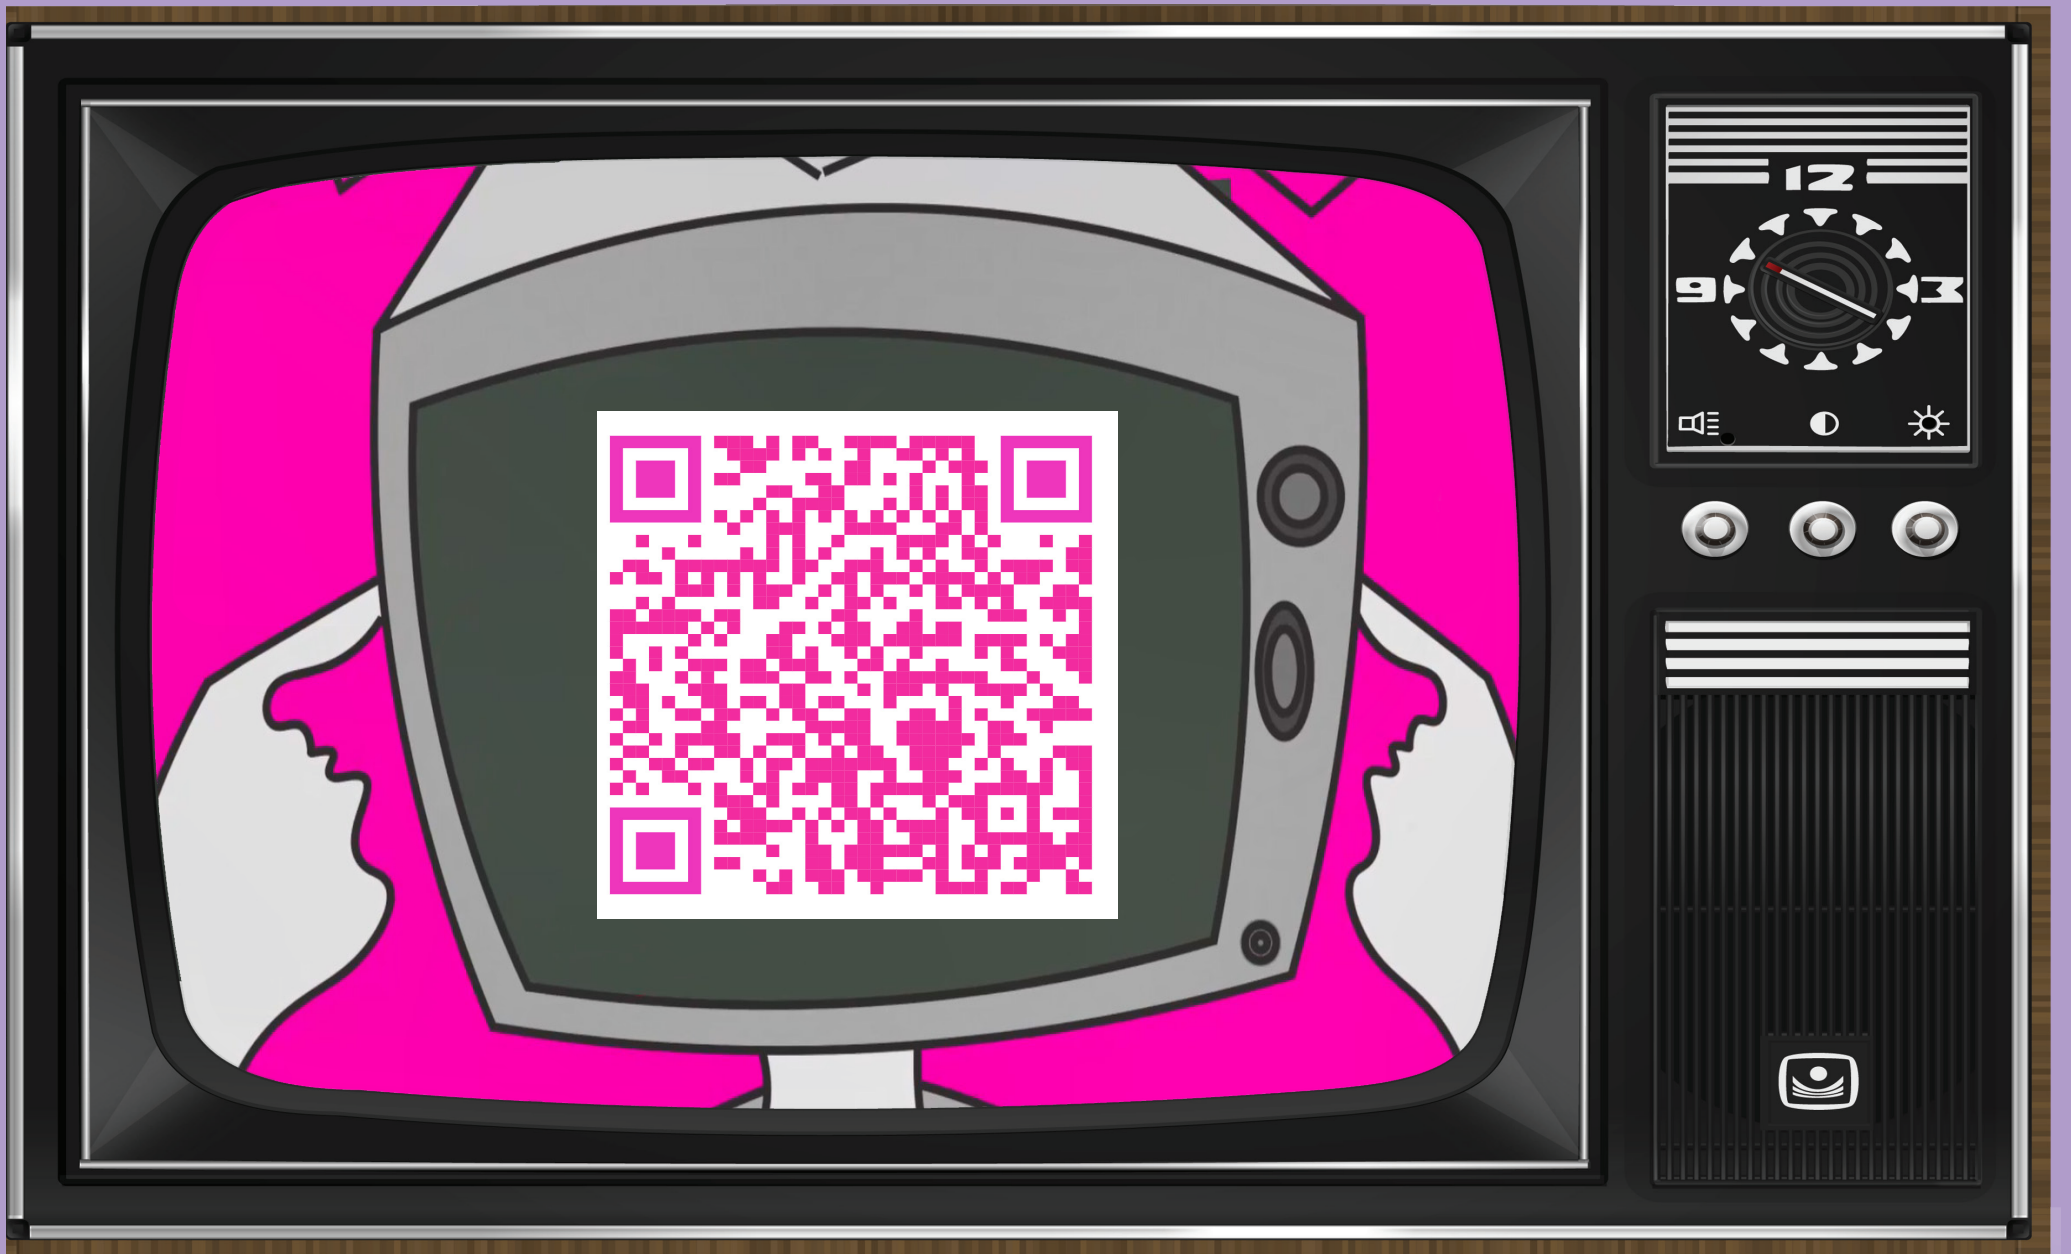

The following animations are bumpers made as part of an educational practice for the defunct tv channel TVX that was local in El Salvador, the network focussed mainly on otaku and gamer culture.

Software:

Adobe After Effects

Autodesk Sketchbook

A circular wreath of white lotus flowers and green leaves on a blue background. The wreath is composed of several lotus flowers in various stages of bloom, with large green leaves interspersed. The flowers have white petals with light blue shading and yellow centers. The leaves are a vibrant green with detailed vein patterns. The entire wreath is set against a solid blue background.

Myalo

Myalo which comes from the Greek word mint; It is a section focused on both digital and traditional illustration. It is a space dedicated to larger projects, which can only be created by transferring ideas from the mind to paper.

Inspired by the song, “Daydream in Blue” by The Gunter Kallmann Choir, this piece of multimedia artwork features the character of Ciel from my ongoing project Partners In Crime. The artwork is a mixed of various tradicional mediums including markers, paint and glitter.

The following are some of the characters I've designed for my Partners In Crime project.

Software:

Autodesk Sketchbook

Leafdan

Seeker

Rhys

Lisk

Valka

These are one of the reference sheets I made for Botonito, a character from my illustrated children's book "The Cardboard Box Boy." Said story was written and illustrated by my person. It follows the story of a young boy called Robin as he faces his fears in order to reach his friend Botonito's house on the other side of the woods.
